Academy of Medical Education Scholars (AMES)

The mission of the AMES is to mentor and support outstanding educators, and to promote excellence in teaching and educational scholarship at all College of Medicine teaching sites. The Academy of Medical Education Scholars recognizes the College's most outstanding educators and provides a forum for teaching faculty to work together to enhance educational programs. The nine distinguished College of Medicine faculty members serving as inaugural members of the Academy were recently joined by five new members. They will all work in collaboration with the College of Medicine's Educational Policy Committee to refine and continue the Academy's mission.

In Memoriam

Virginia Mann Sugg Furrow, MD

Dr. Virginia Mann Sugg Furrow passed away April 25, 2010, at home. Born in Sunflower, Mississippi, on September 5, 1918, to Nola and Ralph Sugg. Virginia graduated from medical school in June 1942, one of only two females in her graduating class. During her career as a pediatrician, Virginia treated the young victims of Polio and Tuberculosis, and was one of the first doctors to treat patients with a new miracle drug called Penicillin. Married to Vernon Furrow on March 4, 1960, Virginia became his life partner in every sense of the word. She became a loving stepmother to Vernon's three children, and later a grandmother and great-grandmother to their children and grandchildren. She shared in the dream of Vernon's small lumber company, which later became Payless Cashway, and served as Vernon's co-adventurer as they travelled the world together. Having spread God's love through her charitable work and loving giving, particularly through her church and the Boy Scouts, Virginia will be remembered in the hearts of her family and friends as an inspiration. Survivors include son, William Furrow; daughters, Anne Furrow and Betty Beving; niece, Ginger Sewell; nephew, Ralph Rohr and numerous grandchildren, great-grandchildren and great-great-grandchildren. She was preceded in death by husband, Vernon Furrow and sister, Judith Sugg Rohr.
